

Note from President Kevin

Our club is honored to host the Mayor of Louisville's State of the City address every year. It was an outstanding event, held at the new LMPD Summit Wellness Center. 330 people attended (sold out), while others watched online or on Metro TV. Thanks to Amalia Gamez Guerra, we heard the 4-Way Test in Spanish (and English). We saw an outstanding performance by a string quartet of young students from the West End School (standing ovation!).

When Mayor Craig Greenberg gave his remarks, there was a lot of energy in the room. He was passionate, articulate, and inspirational, and he received a very enthusiastic standing ovation right after his remarks.

It was nice to see him give a shout out to his favorite volunteer, Rachel, his wife of 24 years. She started Youth Ambassadors Leading Louisville (Y.A.L.L.). But it was sad to hear that shortly after the event Mayor Greenberg was informed that his mother, Ruth Greenberg, passed away after a brief illness. The mayor said in a social media post, “She was an amazing person who made a positive impact on so many people’s lives.” She must have been very proud of her son.

Make sure you click Read More to read the news release that summarizes the mayor's remarks, showing what his administration has accomplished and what big things they have planned for the next few years. It's pretty amazing what they have done in the first 13 months. His bio talks about “thinking big, working hard, and making things happen.” He and his team certainly followed that!

See you this week! Read More
