

Note from President Kevin

We had an extra day this year, February 29, and decided to celebrate with a Rotary luncheon. Lyndon Pryor inspired us when he talked about the work Louisville Urban League is doing to improve the opportunities for Blacks and marginalized communities primarily in the West End of Louisville.

Women in Rotary

By Delene Taylor

In honor International Women's Day on Friday, March 8th, we would like to spotlight our female presidents and share a little Rotary history. Our most recent female president was Jean West, who served as Club President from 2021-2022 and as Fund President from 2022-2023. Please visit our Facebook, LinkedIn and Instagram feeds and "like" or comment on the post to help with visibility.

Read the history of women in the Rotary Club of Louisville HERE (scroll about halfway through to the "Seven Decades Overdue" section). Many thanks to Rotarian Tony Newberry for untold hours of work compiling this priceless information.

Today, 107 - or 30% - of our 351 active (excluding Honorary) members are women. Joyce Seymour, who joined in May 1988, is the woman with the longest continuous active membership in the Club, and we are so fortunate to have her smiling face greeting folks each week! Former Executive Director and Honorary Lifetime Member Patricia Hart was the Club's first female member in August 1987.

See the timeline of women in Rotary International HERE.

Join Rotary International at 12:00pm Eastern on Friday, March 8, for Empowering and Elevating Women in the Workplace, a discussion on the importance of not only including but being a champion of women in leadership. The 2023-24 Sylvia Whitlock Leadership Award recipient will also be announced.

Service Above Self Award: Greg Braun

By Karen Morrison

Evaluating recipients for the Service Above Self award is a challenge for the Awards & Recognition Committee, because we are ALL about service above self, right? For most of us, that is the driving force behind our participation in Rotary. We serve on committees, do philanthropic good with gifts of time and treasure. We make a difference within this club, in our greater community, and indeed around the world with some of our international efforts. But some Rotarians just stand out even among great servant leaders. They epitomize steadfast dedication to service, week after week, year after year, showing unshakable commitment.

Greg Braun has been a Rotarian for a mere 18 years, but it's hard to imagine Rotary without his large personality, infectious laugh, occasional wild hats and frequent colorful attire. He served as our president (one of the best darn Presidents ever and without a doubt the most fun) in 2015-16. He is a Paul Harris Fellow, a 1912 Society Member, and 2011-12 Rotarian of the Year. He is the co-chair of our social activities committee and KNOWS how to throw a party, all while running his own successful businesses: Maid in Louisville and Paper Chem.

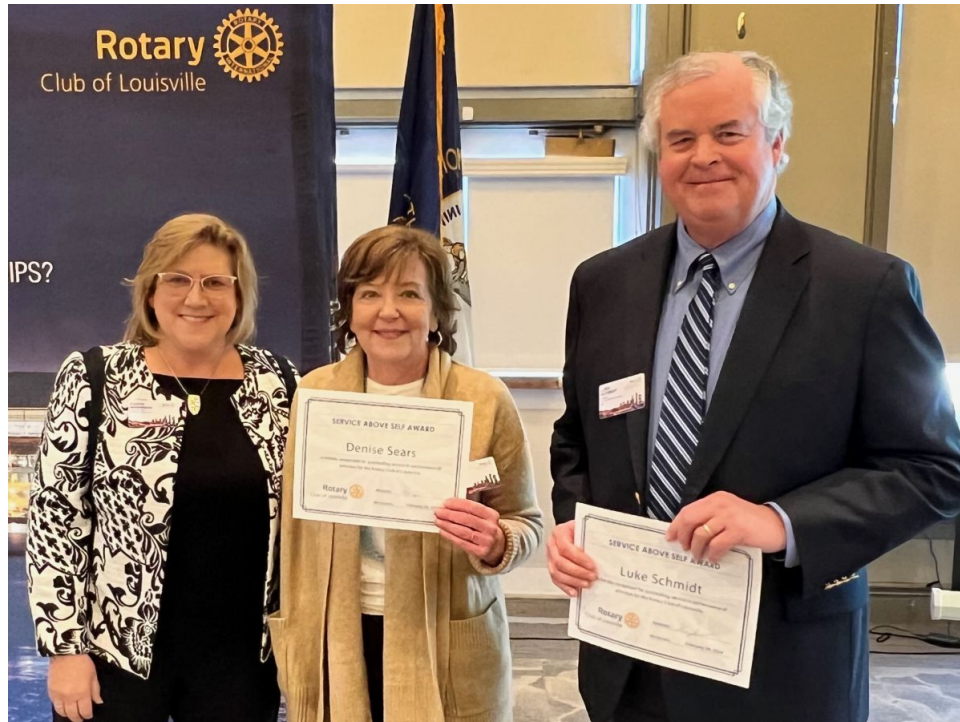

I was thrilled to present the Rotary Club of Louisville Service Above Self Award to Greg Braun at last week's meeting!

Service Above Self Awards: Luke Schmidt & Denise Sears

By Karen Morrison

We heard an update on the great work and amazing results of the West Louisville Housing Initiative from Luke Schmidt and Denise Sears at last week's meeting. None of that just happened. It has taken and continues to take A LOT of work. For providing exceptional leadership to that effort, providing generous financial support to it, and simply being the driving force to keep it moving forward, ensuring the greatest impact possible - it was my honor to present the Service Above Self Award to both Denise Sears and Luke Schmidt. Luke is the Community Impact Committee Chairperson, and also a PHF+1. Denise serves as CIC Vice Chairperson and is also the CEO of her own non-profit, SOS International.
