Club of The Classic City of Athens

April 1, 2024: Heather McElroy, Realtor -- Berkshire Hathaway HomeServices

Heather began working in the real estate industry in Athens in early 2002 while in college and became licensed in the Spring of 2004. She is a graduate of the University of Georgia with a Bachelor of Science from the College of Family and Consumer Sciences majoring in Consumer Economics. She received her Broker's license in 2007 and has continued her education, earning several designations along the way, including Accredited Buyer's Representative (ABR), e-Pro, Graduate REALTOR Institute (GRI), Certified Residential Specialist (CRS) and At Home with Diversity (AHWD). She lives in Athens with her husband, Jon and their 2 daughters. Jon is a Lieutenant with the Clarke County

Sheriff's Office warrant division but also holds an active real estate license assisting Heather on his days off to ensure a seamless transaction. Heather has served on the Board of Directors for a number of local non-profits and volunteers at her church and girls' school. She loves to travel, especially somewhere tropical, and ride bikes with her family. Her philosophy of providing top-notch service to her clients has afforded her loyalty and referrals from past clients for years. She genuinely believes in assisting her clients in making the most financially sound decision for their individual needs.

Service Committee

Wednesday, April 17 -- The annual Books for Keeps spring book distribution at JJ Harris Elementary School, 2300 Danielsville Rd., needs volunteers to assist students with selecting 12 books that they will take home to read over the summer to continue building their reading skills. Shifts are 7:45 AM to 11:15 AM and 12:45 PM to 2:40 PM. We'll be donating $1,500 which will cover books for three entire classrooms. Volunteers are asked to register through the Give Pulse website. Click here to sign up on our Givepulse page.

Friday, April 18 -- We are scheduled to make and serve lunch at Our Daily Bread, located at First Baptist Church at the corner of Hancock Ave. and Pulaski St. The food prep shift is from 10:30 to 11:30 AM and the serving shift is from 11:45 AM to 1:00 PM. Please wear comfortable closed-toes shoes and a hat.
