May 14 Meeting
Katherine Dobie
Camp Sunshine

Many years ago Katherine Dobie, then fighting childhood leukemia, was one of the very first campers in the first year of operation for the now legendary Camp Sunshine. Her attendance at the camp - as camper, junior staff, & volunteer was to continue over the following 20+ years - and her parents - both strong supporters and volunteers - were right there also - her dad even serving as the Camp

Photographer for decades.

The camp, which operates heavily in the summer - but also year round - is dedicated to creating a sense of place where children with cancer can be kids again. Designed for the entire family —brothers, sisters and parents - dealing with childhood cancer who come together to share, grow and find hope - camp Sunshine IS a family! Its also a family of passionate volunteers and of trained professionals in the childhood cancer journey.

Katherine will speak of her personal experience and that of her family.
