CALL TO ORDER

CALL TO ORDER

President Pam called the meeting to order for what could be her last month as our Rotary President. Confidential insiders refused to confirm or deny that Pam does, or does not want to give up all the perks that go with being our Chief Executive. Please watch this space to learn what may, or may not happen next.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

President Pam curiously called upon Past President Mark to lead us in the Pledge of Allegiance. Does her refusal to lead us in the Pledge of Allegiance for-tell that she will not run for another term? Will Pam defer to Mark? Maybe or maybe not. watch this space for the latest updates!

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

By Gregory D. Scott

Gregg Scott commenced his sermon. However, I cannot remember what he said. This is similar to the fact that I cannot remember where I put my notes from last week's meeting.

Greg's acolyte, Laura, announced that Dr. Browning has passed away (the physician, not the eye doctor). Acolyte-in-training Tom Lincoln announced that Jennifer Strong was injured in a cattle stampede, and is in the hospital. She is fine, but her "people" claim she is not going to run for a fourth term. Finally, The Right Reverend, Greg, gave us a reading from the book of Mahatma Gandy to the effect that it doesn't matter what you say as long as you quote Gandy.

Guests

By Arthur H. Mann

Laura announced that she had 2 guests. The first was Valery, who is from San Diego. I attended University of San Diego Law School and I never met anyone named Valery. Laura's second guest is Lacy Stornetta. Lacy is almost ready to earn her 100% attendance badge. All she needs is to be inducted as a member.

Also, present was Jill and her husband Jerry Shaul. They came to listen to our Speaker

DETECTIVE

Our Detective was supposed to be Lance. Lance begged off because he was driving around town in his new garbage truck, and some people reported to our news desk that he is looking for supporters for his run for Rotary President. This reporter has not (yet) been able to confirm this information.

Tom O'Rourke was pressed into service to facilitate Lance's "political aspirations."

Paster Greg was cited for picking up some other golfer's golf ball. Greg defended himself because he needed to confirm that the person who had the ball was indeed a Rotarian, or would join Rotary.

Marie paid a Happy Buck after she took over the lighting at the Soper Reese theater's production of Three Old Broads.

Pam copied Lance by using whatever is left of her campaign donations in order to buy a new-to-her vehicle. The Rotogram wonders, is she running for President or not?

Faith checked out a neighboring Rotary Club? The Rotogram wonders, is this a fallback position in case Pam gets the Presidency?

Apologized for not reporting on last week's meeting. I forgot where I hid my notes/or someone stole them.

SPEAKER

We were treated to an excellent presentation titled "Understanding Alzheimer's And Dementia." At the start of his presentation, Joe requested that we each silence our cell phones. Unfortunately, I couldn't remember how to silence my phone, and it rang during his presentation. If you would like to visit me at my asylum, I will send you my address if I can remember it.
