

Rotary Club of Lakeport

WELCOME AND PLEDGE

President Mark called the meeting to order. President-Elect Pam led us in the Pledge. So far, so good.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

CONCERNS AND MOMENT OF SILENCE

President Mark informed us that Din Lange is undergoing Chemo treatment. He welcomes phone calls.

Denise has fallen, and she broke her arm in five (5) places!

We hold each of them in our thoughts, as well as any other concerns we have during the moment of silence.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

David MoonWainwright gave us his thought for the day from Presidential candidate Maryann Williamson. He said,
CENSORED

DETECTIVE

DETECTIVE

Lance continued in his role as the Detective. He fined:

Jeff for attending the 49er game. A measly $5.00

Mark for wearing an orange and black checkered shirt that Ruth Lincoln said looked like a Yield sign.

Alex for driving through the school parking lot like she was in a destruction derby.

Tom Lincoln for sitting between two Ruths.

Erik for having a large crustacean outside his office.

Faith for abusing her Paul Harris pin. However, Greg paid her fine.

Under Happy Bucks

Jeff paid again for the 9er's victory, and the Detroit Lions' good sportsmanship in their loss.

Erik's division of Senior Solutions was again voted "The Best In The Business."

Not to be out done, Pam's business was the Best of Show, of something.

Marie did such a good job of advertising the Food Kitchen that they ran out of food.

Greg was elected Mayor of Scotts Valley.

PRESIDENT'S CORNER

To a standing ovation, Alex Nunez became a Paul Harris Fellow. The Club's Foundation Chair, whose name escapes me, awarded her her certificate and Paul Harris Pin. She was sponsored by an anonymous member of our Club because of her dedication to all things Rotary.

Pam and Faith announced that we have sold 141 meals for the Crab Feed. It is almost sold out.

Our meeting on February 14th will be a "Love Fest."

SPEAKER

Dennis Fordham introduced our speaker who appeared on the Big Screen. It was a little noisy, but his name was either Ted Waldinger or Harvey Wallbanger. It was a Ted Talk about a 50 plus study following male students from Harvard and another group of students from the wrong side of the tracks. The purpose was to see what made the men happy in life. It was not primarily acquiring wealth, or a successful job, but having meaningful companionship. Another reason that makes some men happy is having your team win the Super Bowl.
