

Rotary

Club of Lakeport

PLEDGE

Monday, May 6, 2024

I forgot to write down the name of who led the Pledge, so his or her name will remain confidential.

WELCOME

President Mark convened the meeting at the Elks Lodge.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

Monday, May 6, 2024

Andy Blum asked us all to honor any jury summons that we receive. Surprisingly, a number of our members have been involved in jury trials, either as jurors or possibly as defendants.

DETECTIVE & HAPPY BUCKS

Monday, May 6, 2024

President Pam replaced me as our Detective. She concentrated on "Happy Bucks". Pam called out:
Dave Herrick for an extended vacation in Palm Springs
David MoonWainwright for a vacation in Hawaii
Beth Havrilla for her daughter's new lakeside home
Tom for receiving a phone call during the meeting and Pam herself for being old (even though she doesn't look it)

SPEAKER

Our speaker was Olga Martin Steele, a long-time "Community Advocate". During her career, she helped establish and run the Silver Foundation, and One Team One Dream. To tie her organizations to our club, Greg Scott is a prior winner of the Silver Foundation, and Mark Lipps /Ripe Choice Farm was an award winner of One Team One Dream. Her dedication to public service makes her one of the good people.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Monday, May 6, 2024

Laura gave a dramatic reading of the proposed officers of the club for the coming year. We then voted in the new officers, followed by an objection by Mark Lipps who claimed (without any evidence) that he should have been reelected.

Marie reminded us that the talent Show is on May 17, and the Craft Fair is on May 25.

Mark announced that Rotary After Dark would be at hospice for the "Soft Opening "of the Lending Closet.

Rotary will again meet at the Elks Club on May 8.

Nobody wanted the Renaissance Fair tickets

Greg Scott won a bottle of wine

Anders won the Finley