Welcome, Pledge, Invocation

Future President Faith opened with a "Wonderful World."

Mr. Lipps led the pledge with his right hand and his left heart.

Greg reminded us of Rotarians accomplishments over the past 100 years. And looks forward to the next 100.

Guests

Napa Rotarian Stephanie joined us.

Announcements

President Pam is in our thoughts as she undergoes her second round of treatments.

The mother of a Lake Events management team has passed away.

Float decorating at Lilia's on May 21st and 23rd at 5 pm. at 6655 Highland Springs Road. The 21st is Rotary After Dark.

Craft Fair at Xabatin Park on Saturday, May 24th, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Centennial celebration August 9 at Soper Reese. Further details to come.

Faith attended Rotary's District Conference and was the youngest of the "Young Rotarians." Apparently she was looked upon with great respect when the other attendees learned that she was from "Jennifer's Club."

Speaker

Dennis introduced Terri Gonsalves, Clinical Supervisor for the Department of Education. She is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker who runs a grant-funded mental health program for students. They provide intense therapy for kids who have suffered from trauma, violence, fires, generational addictions, etc. They work with several local school districts, at no charge to families and are working towards being financially self-sustaining. Great work Terri!

Detective/Happy Bucks

Carlos let Alex slide for running into him in town.

Tom O prefers his ice cubes unadulterated by a beverage.

Ruth correctly guessed the answer about the Warriors and passed the fine onto Dave M-W.

Brock paid up for not staying on top of the Giants' game schedule.

I passed a fine onto to Tom L., but I'm still not clear what the question was. (Sorry Tom.)

Mark L. paid up for an undisclosed indiscretion.

Tom L. was happy about smashing a window while golfing.

Art was only 25 cents happy that Jerry bought a new house. No word on whether Jerry is happy.

Lance's son is apparently a better golfer than Tom L.

Beth's daughter Heather is awesome! (I can vouch for that, we used to work on juvenile cases together.)

Stephanie felt welcomed at our club. (Yes you are, anytime Steph!)

Finley

Dennis accepted the bucks on behalf of Deborah. (We assume she'll see the cash.)

Making up for his detective fine, Brock collected a bottle of hot sauce.
