MEETING NOTES: April 27, 2022

Sunshine: Good to see Bob S. and David B. recovering from recent surgery.

Thought for the Day: Eddie Fisher read a long piece on the value of long-standing friendship, emphasizing that a true friendship stands the stress of times.

Happy Dollars: John King, Bob Selinger, Eddie Fisher, David Brown, and Tilly are very happy for a variety of reasons.

New Members: Mieko Winnacker was introduced as a potential member. We are coming along nicely with membership requirements.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

- Club By Laws have been reviewed by club members resulting in only two changes for editorial improvement, nothing else. A quorum of club members was present at today's meeting and the voting was unanimous of favor of adopting the revised By Laws.
- John King announced that per Foundation By Laws, the Board of Trustees needed to bring in more club members as Trustees to fill retirements or those who wish not to continue. Interested members have three weeks to contact John King.
- Bill Broxham reminded us of upcoming events:
  - St. Pats Day Party on May 27.
  - Activities Faire May 19.
  - 4th of July BBQ
  - Gala Party planning is coming along well. Present need is for Sponsors to help underwrite costs.
  - Bocce Challenge May 5th. Anyone interested in playing should contact Bill.

PROGRAM

Our guest speaker was Dan Buckshi, Walnut Creek City Manager. Most of his message covered recommendations provided by the recent citizen survey results: Public Safety, Addressing Homelessness, Services for Seniors and Youths, Covid Response and Economic Recovery, and Facility Projects. He urged everyone to "Get Involved" and to take the Essential City Services Survey at www.walnut-creek.org/survey.
