MEETING NOTES: 12/14/22

Call to Order: Joanne led us in the Pledge of Allegiance. Our patriotic song was a medley of songs which included "This Land was Made For You and Me" and "God Bless America." Singers were Kate Smith, Andy Williams, Bing Crosby, and more.

Guests and Visiting Rotarians: Joy introduced Kris Radakusna, who lives in Waterford and is interested in joining Rotary.

Sunshine: Both Bill and Jim have COVID.

Thought for the Day: Carolyn told us that we should travel often. Getting lost will help you find yourself.

Happy Dollars: Chuck was happy with USC's overall scores this season and that his quarterback won the Heisman Trophy, but the last game was a loss. Chuck and Patrice had a bet on the Utah Ute's last game, and Patrice gave the winnings to the foundation, plus her own "glad to have won" money. Kris was happy to get an application to join Rotary; and Joanne gave $100 ($92 to the Foundation, $5 because she and Tillie have a birthday this month, and $3 to thank the See's candies sales volunteers). Dave was happy for Tillie.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The birthday song was sung to Hoge, Earl A, Mitzi B, Ron B, Joanne A, and Tillie S.

Raffle: Meiko won a lunch and David gave his ticket to Tillie, who won wine.

PROGRAM

Instead of a program, we had a fun Holiday White Elephant Gift Exchange led by Joy.
