Speaker - Angela Hidalgo

Angela Hidalgo began her career with the Terrebonne Levee & Conservation District (TLCD) in 2002. She was appointed as the Executive Director in July 2024 and has served as the Board Secretary since 2008. She is integral to the emergency response function of the TLCD, serving as the liaison between emergency field operations and the Emergency Operations Center.

During her service to the TLCD, she has participated in implementing over $1 billion of state and locally funded projects for the Morganza to the Gulf project, and other flood control improvements for the Terrebonne and Lafourche region. Currently, after members of Louisiana's Congressional Delegation have secured over $400 Million of Federal funds for the Morganza to the Gulf project, she is working with the US Army Corps of Engineers – New Orleans District to move the Federal project forward.

Angela Hidalgo (Ernst) was born in Kenner, Louisiana. She graduated from Archbishop Chapelle High School in 1994. She attended the University of New Orleans before transferring to Nicholls State University, where she earned her Bachelor of Science Degree in Accounting with a minor in Computer Information Systems in 2002. She earned her Master of Business Administration from Nicholls State University through the Executive MBA Program in 2011 and became a Notary Public with Statewide Jurisdiction in 2015.

Angela lives in Houma, Louisiana with her husband, Brent Hidalgo. They have five children and four grandchildren.
