Speaker - Erica Lambert

My name is Erica Lambert. I'm the wife of Beau Lambert, and mom to Carson and Braylon. Carson and Braylon were born with the same neurological disorder, L1 syndrome. Hospitals, doctor's appointments, therapies and surgeries are a big part of our lives. That doesn't stop us. Carson and Braylon have the best personalities, love being around people and are always up for an adventure. Can't is not an option in our house. Beau and I can pretty much modify anything, and we do! The boys attend special-needs sleepaway camps in the summer, love going out on the boat, have gone snow skiing, and more.

One thing I'm passionate about is getting information and showing the "fun side" to special needs to other families. It is very easy to fall through the cracks, and be overwhelmed by our children's needs. My husband and I have been blessed with a lot of support from our families and the hospital, and I want to share the support with others.
