By Paul J. Sincock on Friday, January 30, 2026

CALL TO ORDER: President Elect Preston Gee was leading the meeting today filling in for President Candice. Preston called upon June Kirchgatter to give us our moment of meditation. June's thoughts were based on the season of winter, and we were reminded to go forth and be kind. A welcome thought in today's society.

GUESTS: We were introduced to our guests from the P-CEP Interact group. This is a club that our club helps sponsor.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT: President Elect Preston Gee called upon Paul Sincock who spoke about our club Exchange Student, Malte from Sweden. We were informed that Malte has moved in with Traci and Paul Sincock, who are his new host parents. Paul told us that Malte would like to go skiing and play more golf. The club is also looking for other easy opportunities for Malte to take part in. If you are going out to dinner, invite Malte. If you are going to Costco, invite Malte. If you are going to the indoor driving range, invite Malte. If you are going "up north" for skiing, invite Malte. This week, Malte has been to Henry Ford, he had his birthday dinner with a small group of Rotarians at E.G. Nicks, he is going to dinner and the Detroit Symphony with Chuck and Nancy Lang on Saturday night. As it was stated, the Club has "adopted" Malte for the school year and we are looking for engagement with the student. If you would like to schedule something up, please contact Paul Sincock at 734-891-6399 and he can coordinate scheduling. February and March are take an exchange student to dinner months. ??

COLLABORATION: The Rotary Club of Plymouth is partnering with the Plymouth Community United Way during the month of February on a Hygiene Drive. This will help a variety of community agencies including First Step, Salvation Army Plymouth Corps, Plymouth Canton Community Schools and more. Items that the United Way is looking for include shampoo, conditioner, body wash, bar soap, sensitive skin products, feminine hygiene products, deodorant, toothpaste, toothbrushes, razor and shaving cream. There will be a box at the Rotary Meeting for the collections. You can also ship items from Amazon or others to our meeting location, send them to: Plymouth Rotary, 525 Farmer, Plymouth, MI 48170. Try and schedule a Thursday delivery to help the building staff in coordinating delivery to our club on Friday. For more information contact Justin Black at the United Way at 734-453-6879 extension 6 or via email at justin.black@pcuw.org.

PROGRAM REPORT: This past week we heard from President Elect Preston Gee on the results of the club survey that was taken last fall. Approximately 100 surveys went out to our members and 34% of the members returned the 12-question survey. It is interesting to note that 100% of survey respondents indicated that they are either satisfied or very satisfied with the club. We found that people joined our club to engage in local activities. We also found out that people stay in the club because of the local activities and fellowship of the club. The survey showed that the key opportunities include strengthening the service focus culture of the club, as well as more social and family activities. President Elect Preston sent a copy of the material that he used for today's presentation to the entire membership.

WINNERS OF THE WEEK: We had two drawings for 50/50 this week. One was hosted by the Interact Club and had a pot of $70.00. Cam Miller had the lucky ticket, and he graciously donated it back to the Interact Club for their project. The lucky numbers in the club 50/50 drawing were 891, and your ace reporter did not catch who took home the club pot of money. There was also no winner in the 2nd chance drawing and that pot continues to grow.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK: From the Disney Movie Frozen, on these cold winter nights, when your loved ones keep you warm; remember that some people are worth melting for.

WITH THAT HAVE A SUPER POSITIVE WEEK!

Call to Order President Candice Towers called the meeting to order at precisely 12:05m and then led us in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Kurt Heise delivered the meditation and in recognition of the recent birthday and the legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Kurt reminded us that Dr. King believed that service is a powerful force of unity, justice and truth and as Rotarians we should try to emulate the spirit of Dr. King by continuing to practice our credo of "Service Above Self".

Guests Today's guests included Geary Huey, President of Canton Rotary. Wes Graff, President of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce. Diane Harrison introduced her grandson, Brett. The members treated (?) our guests to an off key version of HELLO.

Birthdays The members tried again and sang a slightly improved version of Happy Birthday to our Exchange Student, Malte Tornberg

Announcements Nancy Baldwin is planning a Rotary Trivia Night which is to be held on Friday, March 6, 2026 at E.G. Nicks in a private room with a fireplace. The Trivia Night is presented by "Geeks Who Drink Trivia". This will be a fun, laid-back night with laughs, light competition and Zero Pressure. Details to follow.

Wes Graff announced that the 250 Year Anniversary Fourth of July Parade is destined to be an outstanding event. Once again, the Lions, Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs will be sponsors of the parade.
