Sinclair Community College - or on Zoom "Shawnee Indian Relationships in Ohio: Past and Present"

Shawnee Indians were always on the move, lived in a minimum of 26 states until settling in the Ohio Valley in the early 1700's and were later forcibly removed in 1832 to walk to Indian Territory, which later became the state of Oklahoma in 1907. In 2007 the Eastern Shawnee Tribe returned to Ohio in its first Homeland Bus Tour, followed by two others, 2009 and 2014. This presentation will focus upon the 300 years of Shawnee's involvement in their Ohio homelands. Topics included will be famous battles, famous Shawnees, reservations, removal, close relationship with Ohio History Connection, World Heritage nomination, Dayton's Walk of Fame, Ohio's newest state park, current and future challenges in Ohio and elsewhere.

Chair of the Day: Dean Alexander

This Happened Last Monday...

President Elect Kim Bramlage called the meeting to order and welcomed Bill Nance to the podium who led Rotarians in prayer, the Pledge, the Four Way Test, and news of the day. If you are thinking about a last-minute holiday gift, Bill Nance shared some good advice according to a survey no fruitcake, no ties, and no weight loss items. Also, stay away from cheap chocolate and outdated clothing. Bill Nance did a day 10 for Faith and Friends Christmas Kaleidoscope @ A Carillon Christmas, there will be two live shows in the Eichelberger Pavilion on December 21st at 5:30 p.m. and 7:30 p.m.

Judy Budi was introduced and welcomed visiting Rotarians and guests. The Club welcomed Oakwood Rotarian Kathie Thornburg, Susan Hayes brought her husband Patrick, and Lisa Grigsby (Zoom) brought Kevin Grieshop, Executive Director of Chesterton Academy of St. Joseph. He was introduced by Chuck Vella and Sue Taylor brought her husband Ken.

Linda Groover, Club Secretary, announced Rotarians with birthdays this week including Mary Bane, Bill Serr, Janet Harp, Terry Williamson, Rick Thie, Chuck Watts, Dona Vella, Erik Collins, and Tom Maher. Linda shared that the "Breakfast Santa" that was scheduled for December 20th had been cancelled. There was no reschedule mentioned. Linda gave a shout out to John Capobianco for graciously hosting our evening of merriment last week at The Bar and Bisto. Linda introduced Chas Woodhull to discuss the January Social Event "An Evening of Sondheim" scheduled for Friday, January 20th at the Schuster Center at 7:30 p.m. Dinner will be at 5:30 p.m. at Uno's. The Club has 40 tickets reserved. RSVP to Laura Erbaugh. Linda opened the floor for Day Tens:

- Sue Taylor – Day 100 for the Brass players and thanking John Capobianco for hosting the Red Ribbon Committee Meetings
- Tom Maher – Day 68 because that was on the top of his head
- Howard Ducker – Day 100 for his wife who was in a terrible accident, two dogs attacked her while she was riding her horse. Miami Valley Hospital saved her life!
- Chuck Vella – Day 100 for his wife's birthday
- Terry Williamson – Day 250 for her Paul Harris for her birthday and having all of her children home for the holidays
- Rick Thie – Day 100 for his birthday
- Patrick Nugent – 2 Day 20's for the Nutcracker Ballet and for the Carillon Brass Quintet
- Gerry Chadwick – Day 100 for his daughter graduating with a Masters

Linda turned it back over to Kim; she was filling in for President Walt Hibner. She indicated that he was doing well from his recent medical procedure. Walt Hibner, who was on Zoom, did a day 100 for his new pacemaker. Kim shared a few updates:

- Ed Gray was at Miami Valley Rehab and asked that the Club keep him in their thoughts and prayers.
- Annie Foos is healing well from her foot surgery.
- Amanda Byers' mother passed away
- Holiday Sweepstakes was successful and raised $9,430.00

Kim Bramlage introduced the Chair of the Day, Patrick Nugent, President and CEO, of the Dayton Performing Arts Alliance (Dayton Ballet, Dayton Opera, and Dayton Philharmonic). He introduced the Carillon Brass Quintet. The group performed several holiday compilations and pieces including "Jolly Old St. Nicholas," "Have Yourself a Merry Little Christmas," "Deck the Halls," and "Christmas Carol." Charles "Charlie" Pagnard (Leader and Principal Trumpet) shared that the quintet had 16 performances in the last 4-5 days. He also shared that their festive plaid pants were honor of the late Lee Whitney. He spoke of the different arrangements from Richard Price and Andrew Boysin. The ensemble introduced each other:

- Alan Siebert – DPO Second Trumpet
- Sean Bone – DPO French Horn
- Dr. Chad Arnow – DPO Bass Trombone
- Tim "Timmer" Northcut – DPO Principal Tuba
- Charles "Charlie" Pagnard – Leader and DPO Principal Trumpet

Kim returned to the podium and thanked the Quintet and took a couple questions. Charlie Pagnard was asked to draw the Queen of Hearts winner which was over $6,000.00. The winner was Shaun Yu; he drew a 4 of Hearts now down to 3 cards. The pot will continue to grow! The meeting was adjourned. The next meeting is January 9, 2023.

An Evening Of Sondheim

PRESENTED BY DAYTON PERFORMING ARTS ALLIANCE

Friday, January 20, 2023

At The Schuster Center

Show Starts at 7:30 PM

Tickets are $40 per person

The Dayton Philharmonic, in collaboration with Joe Deer and the next generation of Broadway stars from the acclaimed Musical Theatre program at Wright State University, salutes Stephen Sondheim, one of the most influential musical theatre creators of our time. Known for musicals that faced the contemporary world head-on, with lyrics filled with wit and complexity, Sondheim was the creative genius behind such favorites as A Funny Thing Happened On The Way to the Forum, Into The Woods, and Sweeney Todd. Join us as we pay homage to one of Broadway's greats.

PreShow Dinner at UNO's at 5:30 PM

Dinner will be on your own check.

Please RSVP to Laura by January 11th

Tickets will be distributed at dinner
