What do you call it when Cinderella busts your bracket? March Sadness!

With Tennessee knocking off Virginia last night, the final two perfect brackets out of more than 36 million entries are officially gone. Anyone hoping to win the Perfect Bracket Challenge now suffers from March Sadness! My bracket performed about like my weekly 50/50 tickets: a generous donation. Speaking of the 50/50, we're starting fresh this week, and the only way to build it back up is strong weekly attendance. So... consider this your friendly nudge to show up Thursday and see Larry for your tickets!

THIS WEEK - March 26, 2026

Program: This week, we're excited to welcome Andy Daniel, owner of 3D Construction, as he leads a conversation on Alternative Career Paths. With more than 20 years of experience, Andy has built a reputation for taking complex projects from concept to completion. Since founding 3D Construction in 2004, he has led with a goal-oriented approach and strong leadership, working closely with his team every step of the way. A proven problem solver, Andy's career highlights the opportunities that exist outside the traditional path.
