Veteran's Day Program

What happens when a boat passes a sleeping duck? It's a wake.

We're on a roll with the shared dad jokes, so let's see if we can make it four in a row next week! Thanks to Dave Baker for this one; it's a perfect fit since I love ducks almost as much as I love deer! With the close of October, I'm now one-third of the way through my presidency, and I want to share my gratitude for all the support I've received so far. It's more than the laughs—it's been your steady input, encouragement, and teamwork that have made a tall task feel much more attainable. I truly appreciate all of you.

THIS WEEK - November 6, 2025

Program: This week, we will be joined by Erin O'Neil and Andy Hall, who will share an intriguing new endeavor underway in the area—the Mid-Ohio Valley Film Commission. This exciting initiative aims to attract film and media projects to our region, highlighting our unique landscapes, architecture, and small-town charm as cinematic assets. Beyond the spotlight, it also has the potential to spark local economic growth, create creative-industry jobs, and put the Mid-Ohio Valley on the map in a whole new way. You'll want to "watch" this one!

PRESENTATION: Cheri Seevers shared an exciting update on the Ohio River Sternwheel Festival, one of our region’s most beloved traditions. Each year, the festival draws tens of thousands of visitors to Marietta’s riverfront, generating a significant boost for local businesses and showcasing our community spirit. Cheri noted that as the event approaches its 50th anniversary in 2026, the festival committee has set an ambitious goal to raise an additional $100,000+ to ensure the milestone celebration is truly unforgettable. From fireworks to family fun, the Sternwheel Festival continues to be a shining example of what makes Marietta such a special place.

November is Rotary Foundation Month
