We had another great luncheon last week at the University Club; highlights of the program are below. Hope to see you at this week's luncheon to hear the renowned speaker Brayton Bowen, Compassion Advocate and CEO of Building Better Worlds of Work, LLC! Come and listen to the program, eat some good food, and connect with friends.

As a special treat, your Rotary President for the Day will be Mark Kull, the lucky winner of this FUNdraiser auction item back in March.

"Wilt Week" is underway to raise funds to pay for medical bills and support the family of Officer Nick Wilt, who was seriously injured while responding to the mass shooting at Old National Bank. I hope you can participate in some way; links for more info are in THIS STORY.

This Week's Meeting - Brayton Bowen

This week's meeting is at the University Club Louisville. Our speaker will be Brayton Bowen, CEO of Building Better Worlds of Work, LLC.

"Monetizing Compassion: The Case for a New-Age Currency."

Battered by the impact of a global pandemic, worker furloughs, terminations, healthcare risks, and psychological stressors, today's organizations are being traumatized by a different form of "social distancing." It is a new kind of distancing: one that is eroding the concepts of employee engagement, commitment, and organizational self-esteem. Leadership at every juncture is being challenged to nurture and heal the "soul" of an enterprise that is being lost in the fire of economic, scientific, and political conflict. The question is: "How can you make money, i.e., monetize compassion?" Seven competencies of compassion@work have been proven to re-engage workers and improve organizational performance significantly.

The RSVP deadline has passed; please email rotary@rotary45.org if you would like to attend.

There is a $5 meeting fee for those who choose not to purchase a meal - this will include a dessert and tea/coffee/water and, of course, a fantastic program. You can pay $5 in advance via SurveyMonkey or
