Walt's Words of Wisdom

Let your walks now be a little more adventurous. - Henry David Thoreau

Twenty years from now you will be more disappointed by the things that you didn't do than by the ones you did do. So throw off the bowlines. Sail away from the safe harbor. Catch the trade winds in your sails. Explore. Dream. Discover. - Mark Twain

A journey is a person in itself, no two are alike. We find after years of struggle that we do not take a trip, a trip takes us. - John Steinbeck

*You have brains in your head. You have feet in your shoes.
You can steer yourself any direction you choose.
You're on your own. And you know what you know.*

And YOU are the one who'll decide where to go...

- Dr. Seuss

Life is good! See you tomorrow.

Note from Delene

I hope you read yesterday's announcement email about the short-term move to Joe's Palm Room, and have marked your calendars to attend the meeting with Charles Booker on September 15th. You can RSVP HERE - sorry I forgot to include the link in the email. I am getting continuous inquiries from people that have heard and are interested in learning more about Rotary and attending a meeting. This will generate some great visibility, and I anticipate this being one of the highest attended meetings since I've been involved with the Club.

Thank you to all 30 members who have completed the Committee Interest Survey. Where are the rest of you? I know there are many more who have not chosen a committee yet! Committees are the heart of our Club and our goal is to see each of you engaged and working with other Rotarians to live out Service Above Self in ways that are meaningful to you.

If you've logged into DaCdb recently, you may have noticed the Club Members page has changed slightly. I've separated our different membership categories into separate tabs, so if you are looking for someone, it is probably best to use the search field at the top, as they may not show up on the first default tab if they are in a different category.

Thanks to Susan Zepeda for sharing this short video about Partnering for Peace RI-Peace Corps Peace Week, September 19-23. Please take a minute to watch HERE.

Tomorrow's Meeting: Cleo Battle, Louisville Tourism

Tomorrow's meeting will feature Cleo Battle, President and CEO of Louisville Tourism. His topic is titled Tourism Ambassadors. As summer winds down and Louisville's heavy tourism season continues into September's Bourbon Heritage Month, Louisville Tourism has finally seen a decisive turning point in the city's tourism recovery. Join us for updates on tourism, hotel development, airlift, and bourbon tourism.

The menu will be Baby Salad Greens with Grilled Chicken; a vegetarian/gluten-free option is available upon advance request. As of right now, I have 5 meals available to sell; text me at 502-295-9290 if you would like to purchase one.

August 25th Meeting Recap: Governor Beshear / Dr. Aaron Thompson

Last week's meeting featured a Zoom talk with Governor Andy Beshear about the disaster recovery in our state, and Dr. Aaron Thompson with the Kentucky Council on Postsecondary Education shared his insight on the connections between education and the economy, and how a postsecondary education at all attainment levels represents the best chance for the student, their future and the economic future of the Commonwealth. If you would like to share your feedback, click HERE. If you would like to watch the recording, click HERE.

September 8th Meeting: Susan Rademacher / Origin Park

The September 8th meeting at SAVOR will feature Susan Rademacher, Executive Director, River Heritage Conservancy. She will be speaking about the Origin Park initiative, which would bring a massive park along the Ohio River shoreline in Southern Indiana.

The menu will be Jambalaya (low spice, no shrimp); a vegetarian/gluten-free option is available upon advance request. RSVP HERE by Monday at NOON.

September 15th Meeting - Charles Booker - Joe's Palm Room

I am excited to share the news that we will be hosting US Senate Candidate Charles Booker as our speaker at our 9/15 meeting (unfortunately Senator Paul was unable to participate). We will be at a new location – the iconic Joe's Palm Room at 1821 W. Jefferson, opened by Joe Hammond in 1967 and recently re-opened.

We will have a buffet instead of plated meals and the cost will be $25 per person. The menu will be Creamy Pesto Pasta with Chicken, Sauteed Root Vegetables, Caesar Salad, Assorted Rolls w/whipped butter, and Assorted Pastry Bars. You can RSVP HERE.

We will still issue tickets for the buffet line, so you can register without purchasing a meal if you prefer. There will be a cash bar open from 11:30 until noon, and also following the meeting – you are welcome and encouraged to stay as long as you like. Committees are welcome to meet before or after meetings.

There are 42 parking spaces in the fenced lot at Joe's and more in the lot they own next to the club. There is also plenty of parking along both sides of Jefferson Street. For the September 15th meeting, we have Board members and other volunteers who have offered to meet anyone at Savor and carpool. Joe's Palm Room is less than 10 minutes from Savor, and 3 minutes from the Frazier where we have held meetings in the past. If you are driving west on I64, just take the 9th Street exit (#4) and turn right on Jefferson St. It's a straight shot to 18th street and Joe's is between 18th and 19th. Google still shows it as "The Palm Room" - that is the correct spot.

Volunteers Needed For Speech Competition

By Michael L. Brumleve

I know many of you are passionate about helping the youth in our community. An excellent way to do that is to be part of the team that oversees our annual club speech competition. We all know that time, talent and treasure are the hallmarks of being a Rotarian. Treasure is certainly important but only one component. Our Youth & Education Committee needs two people to assist with this year's speech contest specifically, and at least two more to serve on the committee in other areas. If this is something you would like to learn more about, please contact me at michaelbrumleve59@gmail.com.
