Club of Louisville

Walt's Words of Wisdom

The second week of November reminds us to say "Thank You" and to honor those who are serving or have served our country. We will be doing that on Thursday in recognition of our members who are veterans (please join us!) with a fun sing along! We will also recognize new Paul Harris Fellows - if you have not been presented with your pin yet, please email rotary@rotary45.org to add your name to the program. If you are a PHF, please wear your pin!

Maggie Keith & Lindsey McClave, The Farmer & The Foodie Hosts will be inspirational and informational with their presentation...please come!

Last week, our program committee asked Dan Mann, the Executive Director of Muhammad Ali International Airport, to tell us about the great improvements to our airport. From a modernized terminal to the largest geothermal heating and cooling system at any airport in the country and to better access to parking, "Dan the Man" proudly and passionately outlined the future of SDF! Rotary welcomed Lisa DeJaco Crutcher, CEO of Catholic Charities of Louisville and Nachand Trabue, Founder and CEO of MELANnaire Marketplace and CEO of Manhattan on Broadway event venue to our club, and welcomed returning member Jason Pierce, CEO of the Lincoln Heritage Council, Boy Scouts of America! Please say hello to Lisa, Nachand and Jason when you get a chance.

Walt's Words of Wisdom comprise three disciplines this week by honoring our veterans and our Paul Harris Fellows, with aphorisms about farmers as well.

To Honor our Veterans:

"The true soldier fights not because he hates what is in front of him, but because he loves what is behind him." — G.K. Chesterton

"This nation will remain the land of the free only so long as it is the home of the brave." Elmer Davis

"True heroism is remarkably sober, very undramatic. It is not the urge to surpass all others at whatever cost, but the urge to serve others at whatever cost." — Arthur Ashe

For Rotary Philanthropy:

"It is by spending oneself that one becomes rich." Sarah Bernhardt

"If you want to do something for your children and show how much you love them, the single best thing—by far—is to support organizations that will create a better world for them and their children."
Michael Bloomberg

"We make a living by what we get, we make a life by what we give." Winston Churchill

Farming:

"Agriculture is the most healthful, most useful and most noble employment of man." George Washington

"There are two spiritual dangers in not owning a farm. One is the danger of supposing that breakfast comes from the grocery, and the other that heat comes from the furnace." Aldo Leopold

"A good farmer is nothing more nor less than a handy man with a sense of humus." E. B. White

Life is good!

Walt

This Week's Meeting - Maggie Keith & Lindsey McClave, The Farmer & The Foodie Hosts

\*Update: Maggie is ill and unable to attend but Lindsey will cover her part of the presentation.*

This week's meeting will feature Maggie Keith and Lindsey McClave, hosts of KET's The Farmer & The Foodie series, talking about "How Our Food Is Grown and Why It Matters."

What happens when a self-taught farmer and self-taught home cook become best friends? Great TV, of course! The Farmer & The Foodie is a tribute to Kentucky's vast agricultural roots, connecting the farm to the table in the most fundamental of ways. Hosts Maggie Keith and Lindsey McClave explore not only unique ingredients but the diverse methods and philosophies used to cultivate them, seeking to not simply understand where our food comes from but how it was grown and why this matters so much.

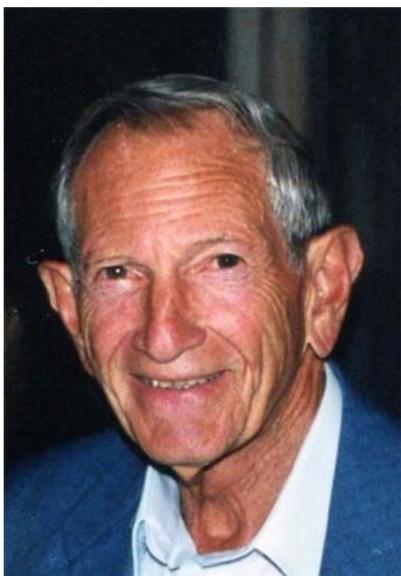

The menu will be a buffet with Chicken Marsala, Wild Mushrooms, Tomato Caprese Salad and Chocolate Cake. A black bean veggie burger is available upon advance request. Our door prize will be a ticket to the Rotary Day at the Opera.

Register HERE (if the survey is closed, email rotary@rotary45.org to see if any seats remain)

Re:Center Ministries Dinner - Volunteers Still Needed

We need some volunteers for our next meal at the ReCenter Ministries tomorrow, November 9th at 5:30pm. It will be an early opportunity to celebrate Thanksgiving with our friends going through the rehab program at Re:Center Ministries. The Holiday Season is a tough time for many, including those with addictions. Re:Center Ministries is located at 733 E. Jefferson Street, next door to The Rabbit Hole Distillery. Joining these men for an early Thanksgiving meal makes me grateful for all the gifts of God's grace.

We had a good turnout last night for our meal at the ReCenter Ministries and served about 20 men in the Life Change Program, which is a successful addiction rehab program we have supported since 2015.

I provide the main meal prepared by Kingsley Catering. Molly Smith of the Louisville Archdiocese will bring drinks and rolls, and David Snyder will bring salad. We need someone to bring desserts, which are usually fruit pies from Kroger. But ABOVE ALL, we just need a few more Rotarians to participate in serving the meal and sitting down with the men to break bread. Let me know if you can help.

Yours In Rotary Service,
Larry Sloan, Lifeline Committee

The Gift of the Magi

Presented at the Opera Center (708 Magazine Street), this heartwarming holiday classic brings you close to the action. Jim and Della cannot afford to buy each other presents for Christmas; as a result, they pawn their most prized possessions to purchase gifts for each other. However, their surprises go awry in this adaptation of O. Henry's classic story, delivered with beautiful melodies sung in English.

Western High School Warrior Tree Program: Donations Needed

By Walt Kunau

When shopping for the holidays this season, please consider supporting the Western High School Warrior Tree Holiday Program with a donation of Clothing, Toys, Food, Snacks and/or Monetary Donations. Many in our community go without food and clothing, and children are at the most risk. Youth over the age of 12 in Louisville miss out on holiday programs such as Angel Tree and Shop with a Cop. With the generous support of the community along with the staff at Western, more than 80 Western High School families were helped last year - let's make that number higher this year!
