Club of the Classic City of Athens

February 2, 2026

Speaker: April Haynes-Willis

April Willis-Haynes is the founder and Executive Director of the Royal Legacy Project and the author of the transformative Legacy 13 Series, a trilogy that explores identity, accountability, and generational healing through Thirteen Reasons I'm Not Your Angry Black Woman; 13 Apologies to Our Children; and, 3 Truths: Nobody Owes Me. Her work blends storytelling, cultural insight, and emotional honesty to spark conversations that strengthen families and communities.

With more than 20 years of experience in healthcare, April has served children, families, and older adults with a deep commitment to dignity, compassion, and education. Her background in caregiving, patient support, and community health informs her writing and fuels her mission to break cycles, repair relationships, and empower the next generation with truth and clarity.

Through the Royal Legacy Project, April develops healing, centered programming for youth; creates literacy, focused materials; and, designs community events that celebrate resilience, accountability, and legacy. Her work invites readers and audiences to reflect, take ownership, and build lives rooted in truth, love, and self-responsibility.
