Get to Know Our Club Members

Our first meeting of the new year will feature three of our own telling us about their Rotary Club classification. Join us in learning what Bethany Nanan, Matthew Epperson, and Reed Sheats do when they are at work, when they have free time, and, and how they participate in Rotary.

And the Winner Is...

Monday is the day to learn which lucky person is going to Ireland as the winner of Classic City Rotary Club's raffle. Don't miss the big announcement!

Meet Our Newest Member

No stranger to the Classic City Rotary Club, Kelsey Kelterborn is our latest member and was inducted at the holiday party in December. Kelsey is employed with Georgia Power and is married to Michelle Roberts Kelterborn, club administration chair and future District Governor for 2028-29. He has been active with weekend or evening service projects and has attended several District conferences. Kelsey is our first member to join through the new Impact Membership category. Impact Membership is designed for individuals who are committed to service and active participation in club projects but who may be unable to attend weekly meetings due to professional or personal obligations. Glad to have you as a member, Kelsey!

Holiday Party Cheer

President Heather and member Tammy Dalton show off just a small portion of gifts collected for the Grandparents Raising Grandchildren program run by the Athens Community Council on Aging. Many thanks to Tammy for organizing this annual event.

There were also surprises and many laughs with the White Elephant gift exchange. Some items may return at the 2026 Holiday Party.
