It was a family affair at Ugarden on Fri., June 2nd when Tammy Dalton, Cindy Darden and daughter and grandchildren, Becky and Jeff Engel and Marilyn Appleby dug up daffodil bulbs that would have been thrown out. Ugarden typically just puts the bulbs in the compost pile but Cindy asked if they could be dug up and used for another project. Several buckets and boxes later, the bulbs are now safely staying cool in Cindy's basement over the summer. In the fall, we will plant the bulbs at Advantage Behavioral Health to assist with beautifying the grounds.

A big shout out to master grillers Ray Watson and CJ Johnson for cooking up a storm at Denney Tower last Monday and to Pam Shropshire for calling bingo with Becky Engel and Cris Morgan-Waite for assisting residents with bingo cards and prize selection. Residents thoroughly enjoyed lunch and bingo and were excited that we were back to organize this event.
