Special Fundraising Event For Ukraine June 7

Universal Aid for Children (UAC) with the support of Rockville Rotary is hosting a special fundraising event in Miami, Florida, at the SEA VIEW HOTEL on the Ocean, 9909 Collins Ave., Bal Harbour, on June 7th from 6:30 to 9:30 PM. This event marks 30 years of dedicated support for orphans, children with special needs, and refugees from Ukraine.

With the ongoing crisis, UAC's mission remains critical. We invite Rotary Clubs across District 7620 and beyond to support this effort through publicity, attendance, sponsorships, and donations. Your participation embodies Rotary International's commitment to service—"We Are People of Action."

Together, we can make a lasting difference in the lives of those who need it most. Please spread the word, invite family, friends, colleagues, and business associates here and in Miami to help us bring aid to vulnerable children in the Odesa region.

For more details or ways to support, please reach out to Irina Lujan, Rockville Rotary Club International Chair, 301-873-4218, irinaUAC@gmail.com.

Thank you again, your help and support with this vital project is appreciated.

YIR,

Eliseo

Peace and Conflict Resolution Training Workshop for Rotarians, Saturday June 7th

Skills in conflict resolution are valuable assets for work within your Rotary Clubs, communities, and the domestic and international service projects that you support in our increasingly conflict-filled world, as well as work in Rotary Inter-Country Committees and Rotary Action groups.

The District 7620 Peace Committee is sponsoring a Peace and Conflict Resolution one-day workshop on Saturday, June 7th with the Rotary- Carter School for Peace and Conflict Resolution Collaboration. The event will take place at the Carter School in Arlington, Virginia. This training builds on the Peacebuilder training provided by the Rotary Peace Academy (such as the analysis of the conditions necessary for positive peace) but goes beyond enabling Rotarians to develop conflict resolution skills through interactive, participatory-facilitated activities. By completing this workshop participants will be able to:

- Explain the concepts of peace, conflict and conflict dynamics to fellow club members
- Apply analytical skills in conflict-sensitive analysis using tools such as problem analysis, do-no-harm analysis, stakeholder analysis
- Apply interpersonal skills needed for conflict resolution, management, and transformation such as negotiation, mediation, empathy, active listening, effective communication.

Participants completing the workshop will also receive training certificates.

The workshop fee is only $25 to cover breakfast and lunch costs. There are only 30 spaces available for participants from Districts 7620 and 7610. So, please register now to ensure that you have a place in this valuable workshop.
