Illuminating Perspectives: A Panel Discussion with Future Leaders Dec. 4

Join District 7620 Peace Committee Peace Talks on December 4th at 7:00pm for a dynamic conversation with five young professionals who offer fresh, authentic perspectives on today's world. As members of a generation shaped by social media, the COVID-19 pandemic, and the rise of AI in the workplace, these panelists bring lived experience and thoughtful insight to the challenges facing our communities and planet. Through their studies and early career journeys, each panelist brings distinct knowledge and experience in the domains of environment, education, finance, health, and international relations. This discussion will delve into the challenges they see in their spheres of influence, what motivates them to act, how they approach solutions, and their vision for peace in a rapidly changing world.
