The Rotary Leadership Institute is not only for our Presidents

We know that Rotarians are great leaders. They are great business, community, church and nonprofit leaders. They may have learned leadership in the military, business school, seminars, books, and through experience. Students of leadership know that leadership is situational. A leadership style that works well in one situation may not be successful in another. RLI works to show how to use your Leadership skills in a Rotary Club. No boring lectures, great discussions and lots of fun.

Have you heard of the 4 For 3 Program?

Several years ago, the RLI Board developed what is called the 4 for 3 Program. It was created to encourage Clubs to send more than just the President to our events. Board Members, Committee Chairs, and other engaged Rotarians should consider attending. To encourage this, if a Club sends 4 members to the same RLI event (any Part), the fourth participant is free.

The Rules

- All four members must register for the event on line at www.rli33.org or on the calendar at DACdb.com.
- They must pay for the $95 registration fee on-line using a credit card.
- All four registrants must attend the event.
- A $95 check will be sent to the Club President by RLI
