UNITE
GOOD

This week we welcome High School student Asher George. Asher will embark on an amazing journey to Thailand in August with the Rotary Youth Exchange, spending 10 months fully immersed in Thai culture and language, staying with two to three host families. Also, we will play a Zoom video interview with Sarka, catching up with her at home in the Czech Republic with a Q & A.

Respond to rotaryredmond@gmail.com to confirm your attendance. If inviting a guest, include their name with your reply. See you there.

You're invited to join the GIFT OF LITERACY work party at the Eagle Crest Falls Clubhouse at 9:30 -11:30 on Saturday morning, April 4 to assemble backpacks with books for the first-graders. A lunch will be served upon project completion. To fill an available position, notify Marv Kaplan - marvkaplan1@gmail.com. Or....just show up, Marv will put you to work.

The Oscars. Representing the Rotary Oscar Committee, Marv and Louise Kaplan presented the coveted Oscar trophy to Joe Kosanovic for his latest Daddy Daughter Video documentary. Joe has produced 50 videos since joining Rotary in February 2020, all are available on our Rotary website.

Kellie Hill is the District 5110 Membership Cheerleader. Kellie belongs to the Rotary Club of Medford Rogue. She visited our club to present Nick Mausen with the Rotarian Super Star Award and discuss information about starting a Rotary Satellite Club. Presentation VIDEO

Deschutes County Fair Update With 120 days left until the start of the Fair, we're setting a target date of April 15th to have our online sign-up available. The fair runs from Wednesday July 29th to Sunday August 2nd. Mark your calendar; Rotarians will have first choice of volunteer options.
