This Week

This week's luncheon meeting will feature Geoff Hinds, Director of the Deschutes County Fair & Expo Center. Geoff will be providing information about ticket sales and ticket scanners at all three fair gates.

Please email rotaryredmond@gmail.com if you are attending. If you are bringing a guest, let us know so we have an accurate lunch count.

Greeters this week: Rick Phelps, Marv Kaplin

We need 40 volunteer positions in one week

With the Fair fundraiser one week away, we're at 80% of our staffing goal. A e-blast yesterday filled only four slots. HELP!! Immediate attention required to fill the remaining positions in one week. Attached is the spreadsheet. If you signed up, check for accuracy. If you haven't signed up, see the attached open positions and a QR code to copy for recruiting friends, co-workers, relatives. We signed a contract for 100% staffing. "Service Above Self"

Berries delivered

Joe Ryggs had minor traffic delays transporting the frozen berries over the Cascade Mountains, but made it in plenty of time for the 3:30 pickup time. Thanks to all the volunteers and customers. This year, the berry sales proceeds are donated to: Redmond Unified Sports / Adaptive PE
