Rotary in the July 4th Parade

Joe Kosanovic, AKA Uncle Sam, represented the Rotary Club of Redmond with a mini-float in the recent July 4th parade. The float was decked out in flowers, the Statue of Liberty, two Rotary flags and a USA flag. Guided remotely with an electric golf-cart underneath, the float was a big hit. Weekly Member Profile

None received. Members that have not been featured are encouraged to submit information; i.e. complete or just summary information or bulleted.

Here are some tips for writing an effective member profile:

- Start with an opening statement that introduces who you are and what you do. This could be your current role, a key achievement, or a unique aspect of your background.
- Highlight your most relevant skills, experience, and accomplishments. Incorporate personal details to give members a sense of your personality and interests. This could include hobbies, values, or other passions. Keep the bio concise. You want to provide a compelling snapshot, not an exhaustive life story.

The goal is to craft your member profile that is authentic, engaging, and demonstrates why our members should be interested in learning about you. Start with the key details and build outward from there.

Thanks, we look forward to receiving your short bio soon.
