UNITE FOR GOOD

This Week's Meeting

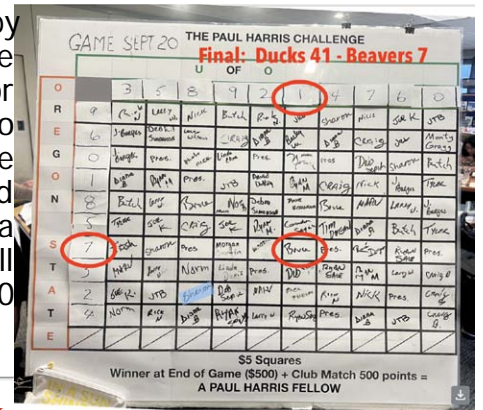

This week's speaker will be fellow member, Kari Nelson, owner of the Testimony Wine Bar, located at 307 NW 6th Street in Redmond. Their mission: Testimony was founded with the intention of being a place where community is built and friendships are created through the vessel of wine.

Respond to rotaryredmond@gmail.com to confirm your attendance. If inviting a guest, include their name with your reply.

Ducks won the Civil War

And Bruce Englund won a Paul Harris by selecting the correct random square matching the "1" and "7"; the final score for the game last Saturday. The Ducks travel to Happy Valley, Pennsylvania to play the Nittany Lions. Ask Joe why they are called "Nittany"? Joe defends his college alma mater by accepting Paul Spain's football showdown challenge. Loser contributes $100 to Rotary Charitable Corp.

It was Diana Barker Day last week.

First, she was presented with her Paul Harris+2 pin. Next, she has the winning ticket in the weekly raffle. Then, against the odds, she withdrew a solid blue marble to win half of the current raffle amount of $205. Congratulations.

A little over halfway through Nick and Pat Mausen's tour of Europe, they met with husband and wife Rotarians from Brisbane. He is the club treasurer. Nick found the tour of Pompeii fascinating. NEXT: That cute guy in the right photo is Lauren Lebien's 14 month old son, Logan. Lauren says he's walking (running) and talking...sometimes in his own language. (Logantalk)
