COME ALONG WITH DG BILL

By Bill Grile

DisCon 2019 is now a great memory for the nearly 400 attendees, and it's one for the history books. Four great speakers and a peace theme. A traditional Native American salmon bake. Decksider viewing for a simulated Coast Guard helicopter bay rescue. Tall ship cruises for Sunday morning attendees. A visit by 150 year-old Paul P. Harris (Jim Lussier). Outstanding Four Way Test speeches. Informative breakout sessions. It was a great weekend.

Here's a shout out to Best Small Club Jacksonville-Applegate, Best Medium Size Club Rogue Gateway, and Best Large Club Medford Rogue. And another shout out to Best Small, Medium and Large Club Presidents Dave Price (Lincoln City RC), Diane Buche (Bandon RC) and Tom Wirth (Greater Corvallis RC).

By Tiffany Bailey

The Rotary Club of Bend has awarded four Central Oregonian musicians with its annual Traxler scholarships. Each scholarship is $2,000 each to the accomplished students.

The Rotary Club of Bend established the Traxler scholarship as a living memorial to Ernie Traxler, a Rotarian and professional musician. The fund
