On Sunday, May 5th, following our District Conference in Coos Bay, we're hosting a unique and inspiring event designed for Interact, Rotaract, and Rotarians and educators who work with youth. Called The Peace Literacy Symposium, it will feature Paul K. Chappell, Peace Literacy Director of the Nuclear Age Peace Foundation. Chappell frames peace not merely as a goal, but as a practical skill set that will bring increased respect, empathy, happiness and self-worth into our homes, schools, workplaces, communities and world. Visit peaceliteracy.org for more information.

Sponsored by Coos Bay-North Bend Rotary and generously underwritten by First Community Credit Union, this event is free to participants and includes breakfast and lunch. It will be held in Empire Hall, Southwestern Oregon Community College, from 8 AM to 3 PM. Preregistration with Mary Hoskins is required, no later than April 29. Send e-mail to mhrotary5110@gmail.com with your name, e-mail address, phone number, and Rotary affiliation. Questions? Marhos1968@gmail.com

DISTRICT GRANT COQUILLE HUNGER PROJECT

By Bruce A Parker

The Rotary Club of Coquille through a District matching grant filled the shelves with much needed supplies. Hunger touches every community, nation, and region of the world. It is a problem without a simple solution. At Rotary, we are committed to using the vast resources of our diverse membership to help others.

Way to go, Coquille Rotarians. #PeopleofAction
