ROTARIANS STEP UP FOR FIRE RELIEF

Rotary Club of Greater Corvallis member Laura Young exemplifies the spirit of Rotary compassion in action. As fast as the Camp Fire overtook the community of Paradise, CA, Laura responded with a plan to collect needed items and personally deliver to evacuees. Coordination with Rotarian leaders in neighboring District 5180 revealed the greatest immediate need for gas cards, tarps, new unused bedding, Walmart cards. Thank you, Laura, for reminding us we can take action in the face of unexpected tragedy.

of our neighbors in need.

Please continue to support the recovery

INTERNATIONAL SCHOLAR, PAUL HARRIS RECIPIENT

By Joni Quarstrom

Armando is a Corvallis Morning Rotary member through an institutional membership with Oregon State University's International Scholars Program. Armando is from Mexico and is doing post doctoral work studying DNA as it relates to Alzheimer's. He received his first Paul Harris pin from President Roger Kroening.

The institutional membership opens the Rotary hospitality door to any visiting international scholar to partake in weekly Corvallis Morning Rotary meetings. It is a way for scholars to get a quick study of the Corvallis community via weekly speakers and offers an opportunity to meet local residents. The club benefits with international flavor and youthful energy in the club.

Armando's father is a Rotarian and he plans to join a local club when he returns to Mexico.

HOW TO SET UP A MY ROTARY ACCOUNT: 9 EASY STEPS

By Michael D. Corwin

As Jim Swinyard and I continue to work toward optimizing our participation with The Rotary Foundation, we were surprised to discover how few members have established a My Rotary account.

A My Rotary account enables each member to have access to tools and features that improve the experience of being a Rotarian. The Rotary Foundation is just one of so many features provided through the simple registration process. You will also be able to see:

- 1) The discounts and benefits of Rotary membership
- 2) Opportunities for service
- 3) Read of achievements of this great global organization that you can use in telling the Rotary story
- 4) Simply gain a deeper perspective of how you can help all your communities.
