LINCOLN CITY ROTARY TURNS 40, DIGS NEW ROOTS

By David Price

2018-07-22

The Lincoln City Rotary Club has deep roots in this community. This year, the club will celebrate its 40th birthday of service, and it's marking the occasion by putting down some roots of a different sort. On Saturday, July 14, the club attacked a pile of seven yards of compost and soil, distributing it into three beds of a new Rotary community garden. Located adjacent to the OSU Master Gardeners' plot at Oregon Coast Community College's North County Center in Lincoln City, the beds were planted with tomatoes and lemon cucumbers. The harvest will be donated to the Lincoln City Food Pantry later this summer.
