Jackson County Rotarian Mobley Honored for Community Service

By Judy Corwin and coverage from the Medford Mail Tribune, courtesy of Bruce Garrett

Rotarian LeAnn Mobley from the Bear Creek Valley Rotary Club received Community Service accolades for her leadership of the Rogue Powerpack Program. Mobley and other volunteers helped raise funds and collect food for the program. Rogue Powerpack sends needy kids home with a backpack full of food for the weekend. The program is especially needed during COVID times for students who depend on free and reduced-price meals at school.

Mobley, a long-time Rotarian, helped coordinate the President-Elect Training program for Rotary, is active with grants training and many other Rotary service duties. The Medford Mail Tribune did a special news story about Mobley and all the Rogue Powerpack volunteers. To read the full story, click here.
