

Meet Alan!

Alan Mallory is an internationally renowned keynote speaker who empowers people to reach new heights in work and life. His unique programs integrate entertaining and engaging anecdotes with practical takeaways that bring about positive change.

What Sets Alan Apart

Alan is the antidote to the typical dry and dull sessions that plague most conferences. By blending exciting mountaineering stories, live electric violin music, and hands-on activities into his message, Alan holds everyone's attention, gets people talking, and creates a fun environment for better knowledge retention.

Areas of Focus

- Agile leadership and adapting to challenges
- Team building and developing trust
- Communication and breaking down barriers
- Change management and transformation
- Personality and emotional intelligence
- Mental health and workplace well-being
- Artificial intelligence and future trends
- Strategic planning and critical thinking
- Resilience and overcoming adversity

Session Formats

- Keynote presentations
- Interactive workshops and breakouts
- Corporate meetings and retreats
- Virtual and hybrid programs

Testimonials

"Phenomenal! Captivating speaker"

– Deborah Jones | PMI South Western Ontario

"Fantastic talk"

– Farzain Malbari | Dynamic Risk

"Nothing short of outstanding!"

– Gary Laakso | The Co-operators | Advocis

"The best program I've seen in 10 years"

– Martin Brossoit | General Motors

"Extremely motivating"

– Jennifer Krause | Caterpillar

