

Guide for Prospective Members

Thinking about joining our Rotary Club? You might have some questions. This guide will provide a brief overview of membership. Once your membership application is accepted, you'll be invited to participate in additional onboarding and orientation activities.

Membership Engagement

Our Rotary Club offers several opportunities each month for members to engage. We come together each week for our regular club meetings. We host a monthly social event and carry out 1-2 service projects each month. While our club does not have an attendance requirement and we understand that there are times when personal or professional obligations might take you away from Rotary, we do expect members to stay meaningfully engaged.

Members should plan to engage with the club at least 2 times each month. Engagement might include participating in any combination of the opportunities reviewed above.

Leadership Development

Our members have limitless opportunities to develop valuable professional leadership skills. Members have the opportunity to take on leadership roles within the club, within the district and even at an international level. Members gain real-time experience in public speaking, project management, community organizing, marketing, budget management and more. Our members include community leaders, small business owners, powerful executives, creative professionals and changemakers. Rotary's network reaches across the community and across the world.

Membership Investment

Rotary members are assessed dues that support Rotary's work at all levels, including the club, the district and Rotary International. Members have access to networking opportunities, leadership development and opportunities to participate in life-changing service projects. Members are also subscribed to Rotary magazine, an international award-winning publication that promotes stories of service and peace around the world.

Next Steps

Once you submit your membership application, the general membership has an opportunity to review and comment on your application. Following a board vote, you will be invited to formalize your membership. Once finalized, you will be inducted during a regular meeting and enrolled in our orientation and onboarding program. You are encouraged to remain engaged with our club meetings and events as a guest while your application is pending.
