PROGRAM LAST WEEK by Dexter Price

Last week our Rotary club was visited by Lisa Fallow, Principal of East Aiken, and Melanie Starks who spoke about Rotary Readers and the impact it makes. This is the fifth year our Rotary club has participated in the Rotary Readers program at East Aiken School for the Arts, with a mission to introduce and enhance the students reading skills and prepare them for academic success. Nearly 50 Rotarians visit East Aiken Elementary to volunteer for this program and the students are seeing the benefit. Many of these students are considered "high flyers" and are now reading above grade level. Aiken Rotary also donated book, so that East Aiken could have the Reading Road Trip. This was a very successful endeavor. Children, teens and even adults were able to have books to read this summer. This is important, because it helps stave of the the summer time slump. Also, many children do not have access to the library during the summer. The Rotary Reader connection truly exemplifies "Service above self:" because of its long-term impact.
