Special Guest Speaker—Mercer Island Chief of Police Ed Holmes on “Police and Public Trust”

Scenes full of violent racism in our country have flooded our television screens over the course of the last several weeks. Chief of Police, Ed Holmes, has a valuable perspective to offer us about the role that Police Officers in our community and in our state are taught to play in public safety.

He, like so many of us, is painfully disheartened to see that institutional and individual racism continues to exist in our country. He will highlight the work that he and the MIPD have been involved in regarding anti-biased policing. He will also offer some thoughts on what we as Rotarians can do to help ensure that everyone is treated with dignity, equity, and respect.
