Attendance obligations:

Regular attendance at weekly meetings is strongly encouraged. Attendance is a primary means of staying in touch with club activities and building strong friendships. Minimum expectation is 50% attendance. Attendance at club events, projects, board meetings, other clubs' meetings, and online meetings are accepted as "makeups", however 30% is expected to be at the local club meetings.

In addition to the weekly meetings, approximately two club assemblies ("firesides") are scheduled during the year to gather input from club members regarding club direction and activities. An annual banquet is held to install new officers and board. Members are strongly encouraged to attend these events.

As a service organization, we expect some participation in our service activities. However, we recognize the time constraints of personal and business life, and do not expect you to participate in all activities. Rather, we expect you, as a member, to choose to participate in those activities that are of particular interest to you or in the ways that fit best for you.
