

Club Fulfills Promises To Assist Local Not-for-Profit Organizations

Story by Ed Kolybaba on Apr 26, 2021

On March 26th, the membership of the Rotary Club of Kelowna Sunrise agreed to financially support five different not-for-profit organizations that are making a difference in our community for those in need. Recently, each of the organizations was presented with a cheque fulfilling their commitment to help these organizations achieve their vision and goals.

$10,570 for the Food for Thought program of Hope for the Nations
Presentation by club members Bob Fortier and Greig McPhee to Cheryl Hoffman (Manager)
on March 29

$10,000 to the Child Advocacy Centre

Presentation by club members Susan McIntyre and Andy Griffin to Jocelyn (social worker), Ginny (Executive Director), Sean (CAC fund raiser), and Natasha (social worker) on April 14

$3,000 to Meals on Wheels

Presentation by club member Andy Griffin to Marion Bremmner (Executive Director) on April 20

$5,000 to Community Recreational Initiatives Society (CRIS) for the adaptive mountain bike program

Presentation by Andy Griffin to Dani Hennig (Manager: Partnerships), Laura McEwan (Manager: Programs-AWE), and James Sader (Manager: Programs-AA) on April 21

$2000 to Connect Counselling & Therapy (Kelowna Family Services Centre Society)
Presentation by club member Andy Griffin to Roxie Van Aller (Executive Director) on April 21

A story on March 28th on the Front Page of this website, featured the five organizations and the purpose for the financial support from the Kelowna Sunrise Rotary club.