

Club Member Recognizes the Outstanding Humanitarian Service Provided by The Rotary Foundation with his Financial Support

March 07, 2024

Dean Reidt, a member of the Rotary Club of Kelowna Sunrise, regularly demonstrates his care and compassion to those in need throughout the world with his yearly financial contributions to The Rotary Foundation.

During the club's regular meeting on March 01, Brad Serl, the Rotary Club of Kelowna Sunrise Foundation Chair, recognized Dean for once again contributing an additional yearly contribution of US$1,000 to the Foundation in support of its humanitarian service around the world.

Since becoming a member of Rotary International with a membership with the club, Dean has now donated over US$4,000. In doing so, Dean was recognized for the fourth year in a row as a Paul Harris Society (PHS) member which signifies his contributions of at least US$1,000 during each Rotary year since the Rotary year 2019-20.

Brad Serl extended his congratulations and thanks to Dean with the presentation of a Paul Harris Fellow + 3 (PHF+3) Sapphire pin for his additional US$1,000 contribution.

Dean is one of eight club members who presently achieve a yearly Paul Harris Society level with a contribution of US$1,000 or more for each Rotary year as members of Rotary International.
