

LO Interact and the 2017 Portland Marathon

Report of 10/8/2017 Service Project by Ted Ricks

The finish line of the 2017 Portland Marathon at 12:30 PM (six-hour finishers of the half-marathon and marathon).

Lake Oswego Interact volunteered to give out food at this Marathon as a service project and to raise some funds for the club. This is the third year that LO Interact has participated in the Portland Marathon.

Despite the occasional rain, these hardy souls worked from 7:00 AM to 11:30 AM Sunday: Chloe Leeper, Olivia Ricks, Alex Platt, Stuart Allen, Mac Filiault, Jade Chou (exchange student from Taiwan), Karthik Sreedhar, and Ted Ricks. The task was to prepare slices of bananas, oranges, and bagels and serve them along with chocolate chip cookies, and old-fashioned donuts to half-marathon and marathon finishers.
