Amazing People – Amazing Stories

Michael Murray, a high school freshman from Lake Oswego, launched a hunger-fighting nonprofit when he was in sixth grade.

Michael was a 2017 st
SASEE recipient for his starting Hunger Fighte

It all started, Murray says, with a simple goal.

"You see a homeless person, and you look the other way," Murray told The Review in January 2015. "We want to change that."

– LAKE OSWEGO REVIEW, SEPTEMBER 14, 2017

Amazing People – Amazing Stories

Nancy Longman, a Lake Oswego High School Teacher, demonstrates “Service Above Self” by spending countless hours developing and supporting various vocational activities for students with intellectual disabilities.

Nancy was a 2017 teacher SASEE recipient for her work in helping students build independence and self confidence.

Do you know of a teacher or support staff member who can be honored with a SASEE Award?

Amazing People – Amazing Stories

Deanne Knipple was instrumental in starting “The Maker Space” which encourages inherent curiosity and creativity in children. Her tireless volunteer work in community schools is a “class act” example of a citizen SASEE recipient.

What community citizens do you know who the Lake Oswego Rotary Club can honor with a SASEE Award?

Goals for the Second Annual SASEE Awards Program...

- Contribute over $20,000 in awards and scholarships to educators, students, and citizens who demonstrate “Service Above Self”
- Increase our banquet attendance from 200 to 300
- Contribute an even larger amount to the Lake Oswego Rotary Endowment Fund

can I participate the SASEE program?

- Promote SASEE with friends and associates
- Nominate potential awardees
- Sponsor awards
- Sponsor tables at the awards banquet
- Attend the SASEE banquet
