Dictionaries For L.O. Schools

Linda Brown

- ▶ Oak Creek February 3rd 11:45 AM
- ▶ The schools have over 75 students receiving books so we need 6 Rotarians at each event.
- ▶ Be sure to arrive 10 minutes early to set up, plan on spending about 30 minutes at the school and be ready to share more smiles than you can count!
- ▶ Email or call Linda (503-789-2939 linda97034@gmail.com) so she can tell the school secretary who will be coming.

PROGRAM

Joe Cortright, a Portland-based economist who specializes in making the case for urban innovation and active transportation and was a powerful critic of the failed Columbia River Crossing project, has launched City Observatory, a “virtual think tank” that will be “devoted to data-driven analysis of cities and the policies that shape them
