Born in Portland, Oregon, and has earned an AS degree in Early Childhood and Bachelor of Science Degree in Elementary Education from Nova University, Miami, Fl., where I taught for six years.

Later, I earned a Master of Education Degree w/a Reading Endorsement for elementary and middle school level from George Fox University.

Arriving at OLL in 1997, In the summer of 2016, I completed an administrative endorsement at the University of Portland. I am beginning my twenty-third year as an educator/vice principal. I have taught early childhood, first, fourth, sixth, and seventh grade. I have served as a member of three OLL Re-accrediting Committees, co-chaired an accreditation, and participated as a member on an accrediting team at another Catholic school. I am currently assisting the principal in overseeing and preparing student-teacher educational experiences. I collaborate with teachers and maintain open communication with students' parents.

In addition, I work as a reading specialist. I love the outdoors, sports, family time, and encouraging children to become the best that they can be
