

Greg Macpherson

- Greg Macpherson was born in Corvallis and raised on a Linn County dairy farm. His formal education started in a two-room country school, included high school in Albany and college at Harvard, and ended at Georgetown law school.
- Greg has been an Oregon lawyer for over 35 years, all with the Stoel Rives law firm, practicing in the field of employee benefits.
- Greg served three terms as an Oregon State Representative for Lake Oswego and lower southwest Portland from 2003 to 2009. Upon leaving the legislature, he was appointed to the Land Conservation and Development Commission, of which he has been the Chair since 2013. He is currently the President of the City Club of Portland for its 2015-16 year.
- Greg is married to Tory Macpherson. He has grown twin children. He plays the bagpipes and has marched in Portland's Rose Festival Grand Floral Parade seven times as a member of the Clan Macleay bagpipe band.
