Elizabeth Cruft-Anderson

- On wet and rainy days I call Santa Ynez, California my hometown.
- Studied Pre-Veterinary at Colorado State University -- until half way through poultry breeding 101 when I realized that I was probably better suited for the arts.
- Studied Art History at UC Santa Barbara.
- Was Director of a well-respected art gallery in San Francisco.
- I have worked professionally in non-profits for over 15 years.
- Had a fun non-profit job securing corporate sponsorships for "Sand in the City" ; where I then had to teach and coordinate 200 people how to build giant sandcastles in Portland's Pioneer Square.
- I have worked for Rotary International for the past 5 years raising major gifts for The Rotary Foundation on the west coast of the US and Canada.
- I have been married to Brett for 13 years and have two boys ages 4 and 7.
- I love to be outdoors; hiking, skiing, fly-fishing.
- I like good food, good beer, and traveling to warm places.

Elizabeth - 2 Truths & 1 Lie

- 1) I am in the Guinness Book of World Records for participating in the worlds largest Ukulele Ensemble.
- 2) I have lived on four different continents and have two citizenships.
- 3) After (perhaps) too many steins of beer at the Rheinlander on my 30th birthday, I thought it would be a good idea to learn to play the accordion. I was then recruited to play the accordion in a punk band.
