Come hear an update on the expansion plans for HMSC, which is also celebrating 50 years of leadership in marine research and education.

Dr. Bob Cowen began as Hatfield Marine Science Center's newest Director in July 2013. Previously, he was the Robert C. Maytag Chair of Ichthyology at the University of Miami's Rosenstiel School of Marine and Atmospheric Science and the Associate Dean for Research. He had served on the faculty at the University of Miami since 1998, and before that he was a member of the faculty of State University of New York at Stony Brook. He received his Ph.D. from the Scripps Institution of Oceanography in San Diego, California. Dr. Cowen has extensive experience in marine science, including coastal fish ecology, fishery oceanography, larval transport, and marine organism population connectivity from both the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans. His additional expertise in marine education serves Hatfield Marine Science Center well in the development of an expanded marine science curriculum and in support of the center's research and outreach endeavors.
