

Dear President Tanaka,

I am going to be completely, absolutely, 100% ^{Honest} I Did NOT want to go to this camp. After all, I am missing Prom and school. Plus, I have a hard time doing things that aren't my idea.

All that to say, I would like to deeply and sincerely thank you for granting me this experience. I am sure that there are other kids like me who would dig their heels in the ground if they were being sent to a camp like this.

The friends I have made in the past 24 hrs, the experiences I've had, every single bit of it has been enjoyable. It's only been my first full day and I'm missing the first bit of camp already.

I'm not positive that I'll be participating in the water-work-fest at the end of camp, because it's not my style, but I'll miss every aspect of this place & the people.

Sincerely,

Anabelle
