WE WOULD LIKE TO THANK

Julie Murray, Elizabeth Blau and Punam Mathur for their tireless commitment feeding our neediest neighbors.

WELCOME TO MARDI GRAS 2023... AND THANK YOU.

To our many sponsors, donors, guests and volunteers.

This has been a truly communal enterprise dedicated to a very special mission – supporting our most vulnerable children and veterans. The money you have contributed to sponsorships, tickets and auctions will help us fund in part Delivering with Dignity (DWD), Three Square Food Bank and Chefs for Kids.

All three organizations were selected by our Humanitarians of the Year honored tonight – Julie Murray, Punam Mathur and Elizabeth Blau.

Julie and Punam co-founded Three Square with collaboration from Elizabeth. Punam, Elizabeth and Julie co-founded Delivering with Dignity.

Last year, still recovering from the pandemic and amid high inflation, the Las Vegas Summerlin Rotary Club and its foundation determined that serving our most food insecure neighbors would be a mission of Mardi Gras 2023. It has resonated mightily across our community. This year's gala is twice the size and scope of previous ones. Our corporate partners and philanthropists have tripled in number.

The food needs in Las Vegas are vast. Consider that:

- One in 7 Southern Nevadans is hungry — that's more than 341,000 people who don't always know where their next meal will come from.
- One in 4 children lives in a food-insecure household
- Residents facing hunger miss an average of 5.3 meals a week
- More than one in 10 veterans suffer daily from food insecurity
- Food insecurity exists in every zip code in Las Vegas. Yes, in Summerlin too, especially among the elderly and homebound

These numbers are daunting, but not insurmountable. Consider that $1 alone will fund three full meals for a neighbor through Three Square.

For about $7, our impoverished neighbors receive a fully prepared three-course meal made fresh by local chefs in the Delivering with Dignity program. Founded at the advent of the Covid pandemic, DWD has prepared more than 750,000 meals distributed by volunteers like us.

This past month, for example, our club members have volunteered to Deliver with Dignity during their lunch hours. Many of us drove to five or six homes with meals each day. You can too by going to deliveringwithdignitylv.org.

We hope you have a wonderful evening at our gala. And savor not only your meal, but also the satisfaction you are feeding our kids and vets for many days and weeks to come.

Creating the new standard in luxury real estate, Ken Lowman, Tyler Brady, and William Brauner understand that individually they may be smart, but collectively they are genius. As a TEAM we work together to aggressively market and sell your home.

Luxury Homes of Las Vegas makes it a priority to get to know the people we are helping. By understanding you and your needs we can focus our personal attention on finding the right buyer or the perfect home.

Call us today at 702.216.4663!

For the last three years, volunteers across the community have delivered hundreds of thousands of prepared meals to neighbors who are food insecure and often homebound.

Delivering with Dignity started as a response to the pandemic, but now is a necessary fixture in our community, with our own Las Vegas Summerlin Rotary delivering thousands of meals during this time. We also have collaborated with other Rotary Clubs in Las Vegas to secure an $8,000 grant. Mardi Gras will let us provide more money for more meals.

Here is Where Your Support of MARDI GRAS Goes!

- Partnerships with locally-owned restaurants, leading nonprofits, and private corporations and businesses
- The program delivers meals directly to the doorsteps of residents in NEED
- Keeps restaurant staff employed

Las Vegas Summerlin Rotary welcomes you to Mardi Gras and our Humanitarian Awards ceremony honoring Julie Murray, Punam Mather and Elizabeth Blau for their incredible contributions to our community.

Rotary is a world-wide network of 1.4 million neighbors, friends, leaders, and problem-solvers across more than 36,000 clubs who believe in unity and take action to create lasting change – across the globe, in our communities, and among ourselves.

Solving real problems takes sustained commitment and clear vision. For more than 110 years, Rotary's People of Action have applied their passion, energy and knowledge to innumerable and ambitious projects such as literacy, peace, clean water, children's health and the eradication of polio.

Our club and its foundation are committed to Delivering with Dignity, Three Square and Chefs for Kids, some of our beneficiaries of tonight's gala. We also commit volunteers and funds to scores of other partners like the Salvation Army, Nevada Partnership for Homeless Youth, The Outreach Program and schools including Palo Verde High, Johnson Junior High and McMillan Elementary.

We invite you to become a member of our club and its nearly 80 members. Visit us at rotarysummerlin.org.
